DANA HEE, KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Our speaker today is an amazing woman, who beat the odds, when at the age of 25, she overcame a difficult childhood of abuse and abandonment, and learned to change her thinking from, “I can’t” to “I can!” She did this by pursuing her dream of winning an Olympic Gold Medal in the brand new, full-contact fighting sport of Taekwondo in 1988. After a hard-fought battle of overcoming her low self-esteem and lack of confidence, she accomplished her goal. That Olympic Gold medal, changed her life forever.

Continuing to pursue her dreams, Dana Hee moved to Los Angeles in 1992, and became an Award-Winning Hollywood Stuntwoman for over 15 years. Then in 2005, she decided to pursue her passion to ‘give something back to the community,’ as a Motivational Speaker. Today, in between films, she travels around the world bringing the power of “I can!” to many different audiences.

Please help me welcome, Dana Hee....
